Prayer Points for week beginning 20th October

Sunday, 20th October: As people take time to consider the proposals for the coming together of the Kinross-shire Churches at the turn of the year, pray that there will be helpful discussion as we all take stock of what it will mean for the work of the Kingdom locally.

Monday, 21st: Keep the work of Kinross Centre in your prayers and ask God to uphold and bless all service users, volunteers and staff.

Tuesday, 22nd: Give thanks for all the initiatives undertaken by the Outreach Group and pray especially for arrangements for the Light Party on the 31st that many young families will come and take part.

Wednesday, 23rd: Remember the work of KYTHE at this time of transition and pray for all the young people, staff and volunteers involved that Christ may be known in the midst.

Thursday, 24th: Pray for ministers in the Presbytery of Perth as they gather today at St Madoes for a time of reflection.

Friday, 25th: Uphold all the officers and young people of the Boys' Brigade and Girls' Association as they prepare for their Enrolment Service this Sunday.

Saturday, 26th: Pray that there will be good conversations around the churches' stall at the Farmers' Market today.

Amen
