Prayer Points for week beginning 27th October

Sunday, 27th October: Give thanks for the work of the 1st Kinross Boys' Brigade and Girls' Association as they hold their annual enrolment service this morning and ask a blessing on all who will attend.

Monday, 28th: Seek the peace of the Prince of Peace in our world at this time and pray for all who are caught up in hostilities in various parts of the world at this time.

Tuesday, 29th: Pray that all the necessary steps will be successfully undertaken as we work out the re-shaping of the Church of Scotland's presence in Kinross-shire.

Wednesday, 30th: Ask God's guidance and enabling for those involved in offering pastoral care to Church members and to people in need in the wider community in Christ's name, including those who are ill and those who have been bereaved.

Thursday, 31st: Pray for the Light Party in the church this evening and for all children and families who attend, that Jesus the Light of the World would be known amidst all that is dark at this time of year.

Friday, 1st November: Uphold the work of organisations like Christian Aid, Mission Aviation Fellowship and Tearfund in bringing transformation to the lives of the world's poorest people.

Saturday, 2nd: Pray for today's meeting of the Presbytery of Perth, which is taking place in Kinross Church, that all the practical arrangements will go smoothly and that the business and conference sessions will be helpful for all involved.

Amen
