Prayer Points for week commencing Sunday 8 September

Sunday, 8th September: Give thanks that “Let's Sing!” is starting up again this afternoon after the summer break and pray that that would be an uplifting time for all who attend.

Monday, 9th: Pray that the peace of the Prince of Peace would rule in all our hearts and that God would bring transformation to all the world's conflict zones.

Tuesday, 10th: Pray for the Presbytery of Perth as it holds its quarterly meeting in Perth tonight, for Alan Reid as Moderator and for all who have reports to present and discussions to guide.

Wednesday, 11th: Give thanks for the fortnightly opportunity the ministers have to contribute to assemblies at Kinross Primary School and pray also for the Supaclub led by KYTHE there each Wednesday lunchtime.

Thursday, 12th: Continue to pray that our Stewardship Focus on 'Living Generously' will prompt each of us to reflect deeply on the part we have to play in supporting the work of the Gospel in Kinross and further afield.

Friday, 13th: Uphold the work of the Kinross Centre amongst the elderly, Broke Not Broken amongst those who struggle with the cost of living and KYTHE amongst young people and pray that many lives will be blessed.

Saturday, 14th: Pray for Alex Johnson as he leads worship tomorrow and for all who will gather, that God's Word may be heard and God's Kingdom extended.
